

SOUTHWEST MICHIGAN | REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS IN 2025

COMPANY	INDUSTRY	PROJECT SUMMARY	INVESTMENT
	COUNTY		NEW JOBS
	Automotive Manufacturing	AAM is investing $133M into their Three Rivers facility to improve into AAM's center of excellence. Their investment into the plant positions it to be a continued anchor of the St. Joseph County economy.	$133,000,000
	St. Joseph		0
	Integrated Processing and Disposal	Clean Streams is building a facility in the Three Rivers Airport Industrial Park to provide sustainable processing and disposal solutions for non-hazardous liquids.	$20,000,000
	St. Joseph		20
	Plastic Injection Molding	Summit Polymers, a global leader in automotive plastic injection molding, expanded their City of Sturgis facility by 71,000 square feet to support manufacturing and warehouse opportunities associated with expanded contracts.	$15,600,000
	St. Joseph		5
	Defense Research and Development	Faraday Defense is a Kalamazoo-headquartered defense company that provides solutions for protecting equipment from electromagnetic factors. Faraday acquired land from the WMU BTR Park II to build a new headquarters.	$15,000,000
	Kalamazoo		15
	Mechanical and Maintenance Services	Pro Services, a mechanical and maintenance company, is expanding their Portage footprint. This expansion will help reduce the shortage of skilled trade workers in Southwest Michigan through their licensed State of Michigan proprietary training institution known as Pro U.	$14,400,000
	Kalamazoo		250
	Food and Beverage Ingredient Manufacturing	Kalsec, an international leader in food and beverage ingredient manufacturing, expanded their Kalamazoo Township headquarters to build a new grinding facility and lower the community impact of their operation.	$12,000,000
	Kalamazoo		0
	Mechanical and Fabrication Services	C&S Machine Allied Mechanical Services, a mechanical services company in Comstock Township, expanded their facility by 18,000 square feet to enhance their customized fabrication solutions.	$9,000,000
	Kalamazoo		15
	Major Household Appliance Manufacturing	Kalamazoo Outdoor Gourmet, a leading manufacturer of world-class outdoor cooking appliances, is relocating recently-acquired Montreal-based Urban Bonfire's manufacturing operations to their Kalamazoo headquarters.	$5,000,000
	Kalamazoo		25
	Plastic Injection Molding	Sturgis Molded Products, a family-owned plastic injection molding company, added 47,000 square feet to their City of Sturgis facilities, allowing SMP to expand their manufacturing capabilities and secure new contracts.	$2,600,000
	St. Joseph		2 RETAINED
	Contract Medical Device Manufacturing	Keystone Solutions Group, a leader in contract medical device manufacturing, expanded operations with a 2,200-square-foot clean room and an additional 27,000 square feet to support new pre- and post-serial kitting contracts.	$2,500,000
	Kalamazoo		55
	Real Estate and Industrial Services	Clark Logic, a family-owned real estate and industrial services company, secured a $1 million EGLE vapor mitigation grant to support the redevelopment of Three Rivers property into warehousing and logistics space.	$2,200,000
	St. Joseph		20
	Mechanical and Fabrication Services	Peak Plastics, a plastic injection molding company, is expanding their operation into 45,000 square feet in White Pigeon. Their investment will go toward the purchase of five new presses ranging from 500 to 1,150 tons.	$2,000,000
	St. Joseph		15
	Mechanical and Fabrication Services	Majesty's Animal Nutrition, a manufacturer of canine and equine supplements, relocated its headquarters from Oregon to Portage, Michigan, to leverage the area's affordable business climate and talent pool.	$2,000,000
	Kalamazoo		41
Heirloom Stitching	Boot Manufacturing	Heirloom Stitching, a family-owned custom leather boot manufacturer, is revamping and expanding a facility in Nottowa Township to increase their production capacity.	$1,600,000
	St. Joseph		15

SOUTHWEST MICHIGAN | REGIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS IN 2025

COMPANY	INDUSTRY	PROJECT SUMMARY	INVESTMENT
	COUNTY		NEW JOBS
	Manufacturing	Depatie Fluid and Power revitalized 43,000 sq. ft. of industrial space using the brownfield redevelopment authority, investing over $9M and creating 14 high-paying jobs.	$9,000,000
	Kalamazoo		14
	Distribution	Clark Logic developed 100,000 sq. ft. of new industrial speculative development space in Sturgis, Michigan.	$2,000,000
	St. Joseph
	Manufacturing	Azon USA, Inc., a producer of thermal barrier technologies, is investing $2.5M and creating six jobs at their new global headquarters.	$2,500,000
	Kalamazoo		6
	Advanced Manufacturing	Elite Tooling, a CNC machining company, expanded their operations with the purchase and rehabilitation of a neighboring building. The project will create 30 jobs and invest $1.5M.	$1,500,000
	Kalamazoo		30
	Manufacturing	Landscape Forms, a designer and manufacturer of outdoor furniture, is expanding in Comstock Township with 300,000 sq. ft., creating 125 jobs, retaining 91, and investing $70M.	$70,000,000
	Kalamazoo		125 CREATED 91 RETAINED
	Manufacturing	Forming USA, a Swiss cold-rolled steel manufacturer, is establishing a 50,000-sq.-ft. facility in Schoolcraft Township, creating 50 jobs and investing $15M.	$15,000,000
	Kalamazoo		50
	Office	Patriot Engineering, specializing in environmental, geotechnical, and construction material testing, is opening its first Michigan location in Portage, creating 25 jobs.	$500,000
	Kalamazoo		25
	Food Processing	Michigan Milk Producers Association's new dairy processing facility in the village of Constantine will reduce the carbon footprint of dairy byproduct. The project will create 12 jobs and generate a total capital investment of $41M.	$41,100,000
	St. Joseph		12